

The Annotated Bibliography – what you need in fall 2019

I am requiring the eighteen (18) texts/images from the Education chapter (5), plus the two (2) documentaries, plus the nine (9) responses to the documentaries listed below, and then an additional nine (9) sources either on the website or elsewhere in areas of your inquiry into education. (IF A LINK ON MY PAGE IS NOT WORKING YOU NEED TO TELL ME!!! The NYTimes and WashPost links are sometimes limited to a number of access attempts a day – you may get to read three from either source before you are prompted to buy access. I'd read as many as you can and then come back another day!)

You will most likely find yourself doing even more research, and you MAY include those in the annotated bib, but you do not HAVE to. You NEED to use the MLA style of citation for each text/video you annotate. There is a link to OWL at Purdue on my website – know that anything from the website needs to include WHSRoets.weebly.com as the “container.”

So – here's what is necessary from the website: (newly organized)

Documentaries and Responses:

- (1) Waiting for “Superman” documentary
- (2) Aaron Pallas “An Inconvenient Truthiness”
- (3) CSM – review of Waiting for “Superman”
- (4) Rick Ayers – review of Waiting for “Superman”
- (5) NYTimes: review of Waiting for “Superman”
- (6) Fact Checking Stats of “Waiting for Superman”
- (7) John Oliver – Charter Schools
- (8) Race to Nowhere =- documentary
- (9) Huff Post review of Race to Nowhere
- (10) NYTimes: review of Race to Nowhere
- (11) Washington Post: Ted Wintersmith

Common Core Info:

On Teaching and Teachers:

Testing Articles:

On Kids, Culture and College